OFFICIAL RESIGNATION. — Publicity commissioner, Willie Sprague hands Associated Students President, Bill Mott his resignation at the council meeting last Tuesday. (SAC News)

Sprague Resigns; Two Posts Vacant

Willie Sprague, Santa Ana College publicity commissioner resigned from office last Tuesday. The official resignation was announced at the noon Student Council meeting.

Sprague's comments concerning the resignation stated that, "There has been much discontent on campus concerning publicity. Due to this fact, attempts have been made to improve the present system and to form a new one."

He continued by giving four statements that he felt would clarify his position.

He said that because of the lack of enrollment in the advertising art class, the proposed system would not be able to go into effect. He also reported that the amount and coverage of publicity desired could not be furnished by the present publicity system.

Sprague concluded his comments by saying, "The purpose of campus publicity has been entirely misunderstood, and I do not wish to be responsible for low-quality publicity, nor do I wish to be blamed for poor attendance at school events."

Associated Students President, Bill Mott will appoint a new publicity commissioner within the next two weeks.

The vacancy left by Sprague is one of two important openings on the board. The Sophomore Presidency is unoccupied due to the resignation of Jose Cuervo.

A special election will be called by the Student Council in order to fill Cuervo's position.

In addition to the Student Council changes, new Supreme Court members will also be selected.

Knights Initiate Five New Members

Five new members were welcomed into the Knights, Santa Ana College's honorary men's service club, at a special meeting held Wednesday night.

The five new members include sophomores Cliff Hutter and Bill Hammond and freshmen Jim Alitto, Larry Wentzel, and Andy Kormos.

President Don Andersen welcomed the new members with the announcement that the Knights will usher at tomorrow night's Globetrotter basketball extravaganza in Cook Gym.

Next Dance To Follow SAC-OCC Tilt

"Leap Year Fling" will be the theme of the after-game dance, Friday night, February 19.

The girl ask boy affair will be held in the campus cafeteria and student lounge immediately following the basketball game with Orange Coast College.

Original plans were to have the dance in conjunction with OCC, but due to administrative problems on the Coast campus, only SAC students and their guests will be admitted.

Dorothy Tinder, general chairman of the event, reported that the cafeteria will be decorated in pink, white and gold. Members on the decoration committee include Stephanie Turnbaugh, Diana Barrett, Eileen Hoy, Judith Reed and Carolyn Gaston.

Joyce Allison, Barbara Kent, Sue Meyer and Donna Spiak will be in charge of refreshment which will consist of cookies and punch.

Patrons for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman.

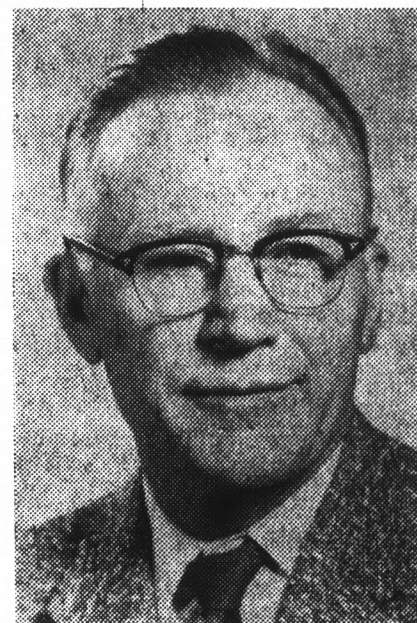

Admission to the gala event will be 25 cents with ASB card and 50 cents with guest permit.

Knutsen Retires At Year's End

Social Science Department Chairman, Orville Knutsen, will retire in June after 22 years of teaching at Santa Ana College.

Knutsen came to the Don campus from the faculty of the U. of California at Berkeley in 1938 when he was made department head. He served in that capacity until the war when he took a leave of absence for four years to serve with the Air Corps as an officer.

Following his return in 1946 Knutsen again assumed the de-

In 1958 Knutsen again took the Social Science Department head and is currently active in that position.

In addition to his work at SAC, Knutsen is in the construction business in the Arcadia area. His company is currently engaged in subdividing and building of better homes.

During the time Knutsen has been at SAC he has taught economics, statistics and economic geography. He has also acted as the advisor for the SAC Jr. Lions.

DONATE NOW!

Koreans Send Pleas For American Books

By Barbara Berman
El Don Feature Editor

Communist violence has long been a threat to the educational system of terror-stricken Korea. Each year pleas are issued to U. S. citizens for book donations which might aid Korean youth seeking knowledge in an environment of fear.

Santa Ana College students have been asked to contribute "unwanted" books through a letter addressed to the school by Vice Minister of Education, Sheon Gi Gim, chairman of the Korean-American Scholarship Committee.

"Reading material may be placed in the large container located in Nealley Library and will be gratefully accepted until the deadline date, Feb. 10," said Miss Ruth Bradley, librarian.

Unwanted Types

The Scholarship Committee has asked that mystery books, light fiction, or books published before 1945 not be included in the donations.

Preferred books are those which concern the following fields: general science, medicine, engineering, pharmacy, mathematics, law, history, political science, economics, agriculture, and forestry.

Korean Speaks

Fall semester SAC student Eddie Kim, who lived in Korea four years ago, remembers the need for books.

"The school system lacked the many opportunities available to U. S. students. We were very anxious to learn, but lacked the tools . . . books," Eddie remembered.

Statistics

Statistics compiled after the Communist invasion support Eddie's views of Korean education. They include:

1. 25% of all classrooms and buildings were wholly or partially destroyed, including 517 college buildings, 1600 college classrooms.

2. 50% or more of all teachers and professors were killed or captured by the Communists.

3. 90% of all facilities and equipment including libraries were completely destroyed.

These shocking totals are all the more reason student donations will be greatly appreciated.

Remember, Wednesday is the deadline to help a less fortunate student read of good fortune.

DEL ANO PIX

Clubs are reminded that pictures for the Del Ano will be made only in the first two weeks of February. Appointments should be made in B-3. The $5.00 fee should be paid to Lloyd Hamilton as soon as possible.

Six Bosses Keep Secretary Alert to Answer Problems

Perplexing problems flow consistently into the counselor's office this time of year and the one person able to cope with "everyone's worries" seems to be Grace Farden, counselor's secretary.

Mrs. Farden has a most unusual position, she's secretary for six bosses!

Each counselor depends on her to obtain records of the students who make counseling appointments daily, especially during this week when the rush for classes is waning.

Previously, Mrs. Farden served as secretary to Dr. John Johnson, Deans of Instruction, and other deans.

"I certainly enjoy my work and meet so many interesting people. But my pet peeve is the ignorance of some students who demand attention while I'm busy on the phone," Grace confided.

Aside from handling numerous duties in the office, Mrs. Farden supports her 15-year-old son Frank, a student at Willard Junior High in Santa Ana.

"Frank and I used to model for the Conover fashion school in New York before migrating to California. I still have mementos of the work I did for beautician and artist magazines," Mrs. Farden said.

Knitting has become a satisfactory hobby for the secretary. Many of the dresses she wears to work are her own designs and creations.

Clothes seem to be a main interest for Mrs. Farden. She includes in her extensive wardrobe over 15 pairs of shoes and many suits designed in her native state, New York.

Problems of students which confront Mrs. Farden daily only add to her biggest problem, how to stay single.

There's an answer, it's leap year!

SAC to Celebrate Holiday Weekends

Santa Ana College students and faculty have a three day weekend coming up next week when classes recess to celebrate Lincoln's Birthday, Friday, Feb. 12.

Classes will resume the following Monday.

Other holidays coming up this semester are Washington's Birthday on Monday, February 22, and spring recess, April 11-15.

Slip-Shod Politics

What is it about student politics at SAC that cause such an up-roar?

During the course of the last two weeks, two important positions on the Student Council have been vacated due to resignations.

Two weeks ago, Jose Cuervo resigned as Sophomore class president. His resignation also left an empty chairmanship seat on the constitutional changes committee.

Just this week, publicity commissioner, Willie Sprague bowed out. His reasons numbered high.

In addition to Cuervo and Sprague, yell leader, Ronnie May, turned his megaphone over to an alternate.

All of this happened in a matter of 14 or 15 days.

What's the reason, and what's more important, what's the answer?

Cuervo's vacant chair is going to necessitate a special election. Sprague's resignation will call for a lot of recruiting on the part of student president, Bill Mott.

This lack of student interest and "I don't care" attitude is expressed all too often by the student body as well as the student body officers.

Perhaps a bi-annual election of officers as has been the custom in the past, would cut down on the number of resignations. Certainly there must be enough dedicated students to merit two elections.

Is there an answer?

Cupid At Work

February calls for hearts, flowers, and a little mythical cherub armed with bow and arrow aimed for the love target.

Is cupid really playing his role in our world today?

If love existed among his "targets" would there be a need for atom bombs? Would there be a prejudice among countrymen? Would democracy be threatened by jealousy?

As the Roman son of Venus, he has failed to achieve the goals of mutual devotion so badly needed to maintain world peace.

As the believers of Valentine fantasy, we have failed to allow his arrow of love to pierce our hearts.

Cupid continues to prance across February calendar in his own maze of fondness while the minds of the world neglect the love symbol and fearfully concentrate on a little ground hog, Russia, who is ready to leap into another year of achievements.

The race for love has markedly become a race for self-preservation.

Spring Semester Fashions Boast Ticking Trend, Patriotic Theme

A stitch in time saves nine . . . nine weeks of fretting over spring semester wardrobe problems. Fashion minded co-eds are reminded to take stock of their cotton supplies and supplement with the newest fashion ideas.

Ticking that mom plans to use for recovering old pillows will be the fabric rage this spring, according to leading sportswear designers.

Grand Old Flag colors of red, white, and blue will highlight apparel for the 1960 season. Finishing a close fourth in the race for color appeal is mauve, especially accented with white stripes.

Experts in the ever-changing world of fashion give the country fresh, less sophisticated female of this season a complimentary shade of honey butter. The new color strikes informal beauty in dress-jacket combinations.

Hazy hues of tan and natural with a smattering of pink cosmetic shades will flatter the feet this spring. Mid-way heels raise the female to stylish heights.

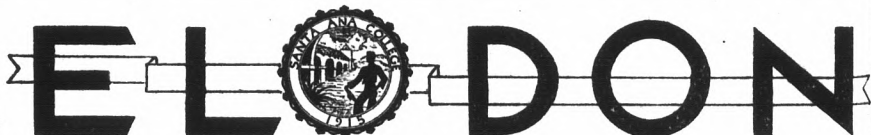

Cummerbunds continue to "hug" the silk organza dance dresses.

Party styles are designed with the "little girl" look in mind. Cool evenings call for stylish wraps. The new white full-length coats pave the way for smart styling whether they be cardigan fitted, chesterfield, or belted. Accessories of red and blue resort back to the popular Flag theme.

The biggest necessity . . . MONEY . . . even has a new outside cover. Smart "Bermuda Linen" wallets boast soil-resistant pastel shades. Matching accessories available are eye glass cases, cigarette lighters and cases, and French styled purses.

Hair styles will be short, either bouffant or smooth.

From head to toe, the 1960 spring semester will lend new color to the co-ed and a wee smattering of pillow talk, too!

Council Comments

By Barbara Derdzinska

Associated Student Vice President Joan Tammamro called the first council meeting for the semester to order in the temporary absence of President Bill Mott.

Alan Leonard in his treasurer's report reported that 161 full time ASB cards and 470 limited cards have been sold during spring registration.

Leonard reported that $634.25 was made at the SAC-Fullerton and Santa Ana High - La Habra High double header. A guarantee of $120 was given Santa Ana High. A gross of $211.00 was made on the concession.

Tickets for the Mt. SAC - Santa Ana College game netted $62.95.

E. C. Conference

Jarrell Mauck reported on detailed plans for the Eastern Conference conference.

Ardith Munro asked about the retreat. Mauck said that he still has not found a place.

Miss Munro reported that the joint SAC-OCC dance would not be held due to "administrative problems." A dance will be held for SAC students only. She also reported on rec-night.

Larry Keith stated that the next assembly was not yet quite definite due to conflicting bookings. It would either be a folk singer or school talent.

Sprague Resigns

Publicity commissioner Willie Sprague made a short statement of his position and announced his resignation.

Mott said he would appoint a new commissioner within two weeks.

Under new business Cliff Hutter moved that a committee of three student council members and three faculty members be appointed to be in charge of the Day of the Don, Friday, April 29. The motion was carried.

Student Union

Leonard moved that $1000 be taken from the operating surplus fund to be added to the fund for the student union. After clarification of maximum costs the motion was carried.

Due to the resignation of cheerleader Ronnie May, Mott asked that alternate Dave Rojo be made a regular cheerleader.

Nancy Leffler moved that a chairman be appointed to the constitutional changes committee due to the vacancy left by Jose Cuervo.

After council members introduced themselves the meeting was adjourned.

New ICC Officers Elected for Semester

At yesterday's first meeting of Interclub Council for the semester new officers were elected.

Donna Bush was elected secretary and Kay Black was elected treasurer. It was also deemed necessary to have a vice-chairman in case chairman Joan Tammamro was absent. Doug Dyer was elected to the position.

A WAY OF LIFE

By JOAN IMIG

A lovely old culture flowered in Spain hundreds of years before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, and to it, we in California, owe much of our present-day blessings. For the old traditions of Spain, brought to us by way of Mexico, in the persons of Spanish Dons and Franciscan padres, have given us a way of life known only to the West.

Here in the West we spend much of our time in our "patios" — we live and entertain under an open sky, much of the year around — and plan gracious patio suppers in a modified Spanish setting — for these patios were at one time tree-studded courtyards, where entertaining took place on a lavish scale.

Today we have no Spanish Dons, no Franciscan padres, but we do have a Spanish culture lingering right here in our midst — and a good example of it can be found in some delicious old Spanish recipes which have been cherished by the Spanish people down through the years.

A delectable Spanish menu can be found too at the La Posta Restaurant, of 2588 Newport Blvd., in Costa Mesa, where authentic Spanish food is cooked by an artist, and where atmosphere and a way of life play a big part in your pleasure while dining out.

Students To Hear Nixon, Brown Talks

Los Angeles, Feb. 5 — Junior College journalists will get the inside story on the national political scene this weekend as both Vice-President Richard M. Nixon and Governor Edmund G. Brown are slated to make guest appearances at the meeting of the California Newspaper Publishers Assn. Convention now in session at the Statler.

E. C. Queen Race Begins Feb. 8

Names of candidates for Eastern Conference queen may be left in the dean's office beginning Monday, February 8.

Candidates may be either freshmen or sophomores, carrying a minimum of 10½ units with a 2.0 grade point average and members of the AS.

The Eastern Conference dance will be held March 11 in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium from 9:00-1:00. The eight Eastern Conference colleges will each send a queen to the dance.

Each queen will be presented and given two dozen long-stemmed roses. Theme of the dance will be "Grecian Fantasy."

Monday, February 15 will be the last day for clubs to sign up candidates. The election will be held February 19.

Tickets for the dance will cost $3.00 per couple. Dress is semi-formal.

Voters May Register On Campus Today

Students and faculty may register today on the SAC campus for the forthcoming election.

A registrar of voters, who was also here Tuesday, is located near the main administration building.

The annual project is sponsored by college political science students and the League of Women Voters.

Political science instructors Ernest Crain and David Hartman, Dean of Students Thomas Trawick and Mrs. Margaret Butler, librarian and member of the League of Women Voters head the project.

April 12, 54 days prior to the election, is the deadline for registration for the primary election.

Gov. Brown will give the keynote address at tonight's banquet and will present awards at tomorrow morning's Awards Breakfast. Publishers from all over California have entered newspapers in competition.

Vice-President Nixon has slated a morning press conference with student journalists and will also give the keynote address at the noon luncheon.

Mr. Nixon's press conference will be for students only and no metropolitan press will be allowed.

Last year Gov. Brown held the student conference and was quoted in a subsequent issue of El Don as saying that "it is entirely probable that I will be a favorite son candidate" for the presidency in 1960. Gov. Brown also stated at that time that a state school in Orange County was a thing of the near future. That school came to being last fall.

Members of El Don staff and other collegiate newspapers from throughout the state will also attend round table discussions with the publishers in which problems and new advancements in newspapering will be discussed.

Joseph Quinn, former United Press war correspondent, will be the main speaker at a special collegiate round table.

Other highlights of the weekend convention will be the special tour of the Times Building and a tour of Disneyland for members of the student press.

Arrangements for all student activities at the CNPA convention have been handed by John "Sky" Dunlap, assistant to the president of Santa Ana College, chairman of the college convention program.

El Don staffers attending the meetings include editor Carolyn Bridge, associate editor Don H. Andersen, feature editor Barbara Berman, and news editor Barbara Derdzinska.

Not even Erle Stanley Gardner would have dared to create such excitement and action packed back to back endings that were tacked on to last week end's Santa Ana College hoop contests.

Narrow Victories

Bob Boyd's boys won both games, but they stalled around until the final seconds before finally putting the victories on ice. I shall now interject a plea on behalf of Don cage fans who would like to collect their bets a little earlier and then sit back, relax and watch the final five minutes of play. They would prefer to leave the gym in good enough condition to drive home.

For those who missed those two ball games on Friday and Saturday nights, here's how the Dons squeaked out a couple of narrow triumphs. At Orange Coast on Friday Santa Ana won in overtime, 65-63, to capture undisputed possession of second place. It was a typical Don-Pirate fray with both teams exchanging leads several times during the contest.

Overtime Jitters

Regulation time ended with the score, 54-54, and the ball spinning (of all places!) around the rim of the Orange Coast basket. It finally dropped out, but I suspect that it was at this time that my ulcer began to form. The overtime seesawed back and forth until the Dons pulled away by four points and wrapped it up after the Pirates scored another bucket.

Still limp from the previous night's exercises and missing more than half of my finger nails, I took off for San Bernardino on Saturday, expecting the Dons to bag this one before halftime against the lowly Indians. However, it was not in the cards as they blew an early lead and the Tribe commanded a 28-27 advantage at intermission.

I was confident that the Dons would retaliate, and sure enough, in the second half they came on like Silky Sullivan to outscore their opponents — by one point with a minute remaining.

Tie Score

This made the score 55-55, but the Indians had the ball.

A shot failed and the Dons had possession with 52 seconds left. Looking for the one last shot, the locals stalled for 50 of those seconds and then gave the ball to Lonnie Moore who swished in a jumper from the left corner just before the buzzer sounded.

Now the rest of my finger nails were gone.

Tonight the Dons play Riverside in Bill Cook Gym. Please gang, let's put it away early!

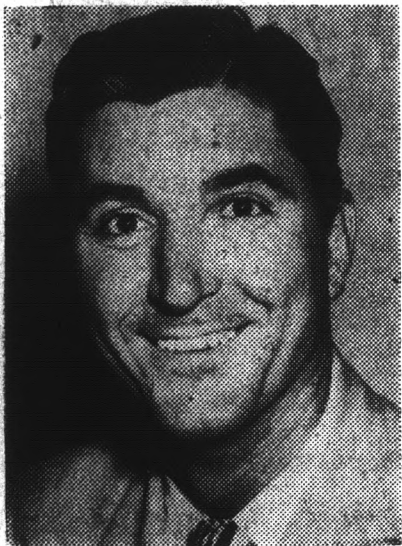

Baseball Clinic Starts Season

Santa Ana College stages its Second Annual Baseball Clinic next Friday and Saturday as a kickoff to the baseball season in Orange County and then follows up the festivities on Monday, Feb. 15 with Baseball Day when the Dons will host Harbor JC in their diamond opener.

This year's clinic promises to be even better than last season's with the addition of several new members on the staff.

Four Lettermen Golfers Return

Coach Arlin Pirtle greeted a squad of eight golf prospects this week and among the eight were four lettermen from last year's team that finished second in the Eastern Conference and third in the State.

Dave Adams, number one man last year, heads the list of returnees. Others include Bill Hammond of Capistrano, Walter Wilson of Garden Grove, and Don Andersen of Santa Ana.

Latest addition to the clinic is KWIZ sports announcer Gus Grebe, who will be the featured speaker at the noon luncheon on Friday, Feb. 12.

Newcomers to this year's staff include Wally Kincaid, Cerritos baseball coach; Bob Nottle, athletic director at Luke Air Force Base; Joe Koral, former Santa Ana College baseball coach; and Russ Henyen, San Diego Padre pitcher.

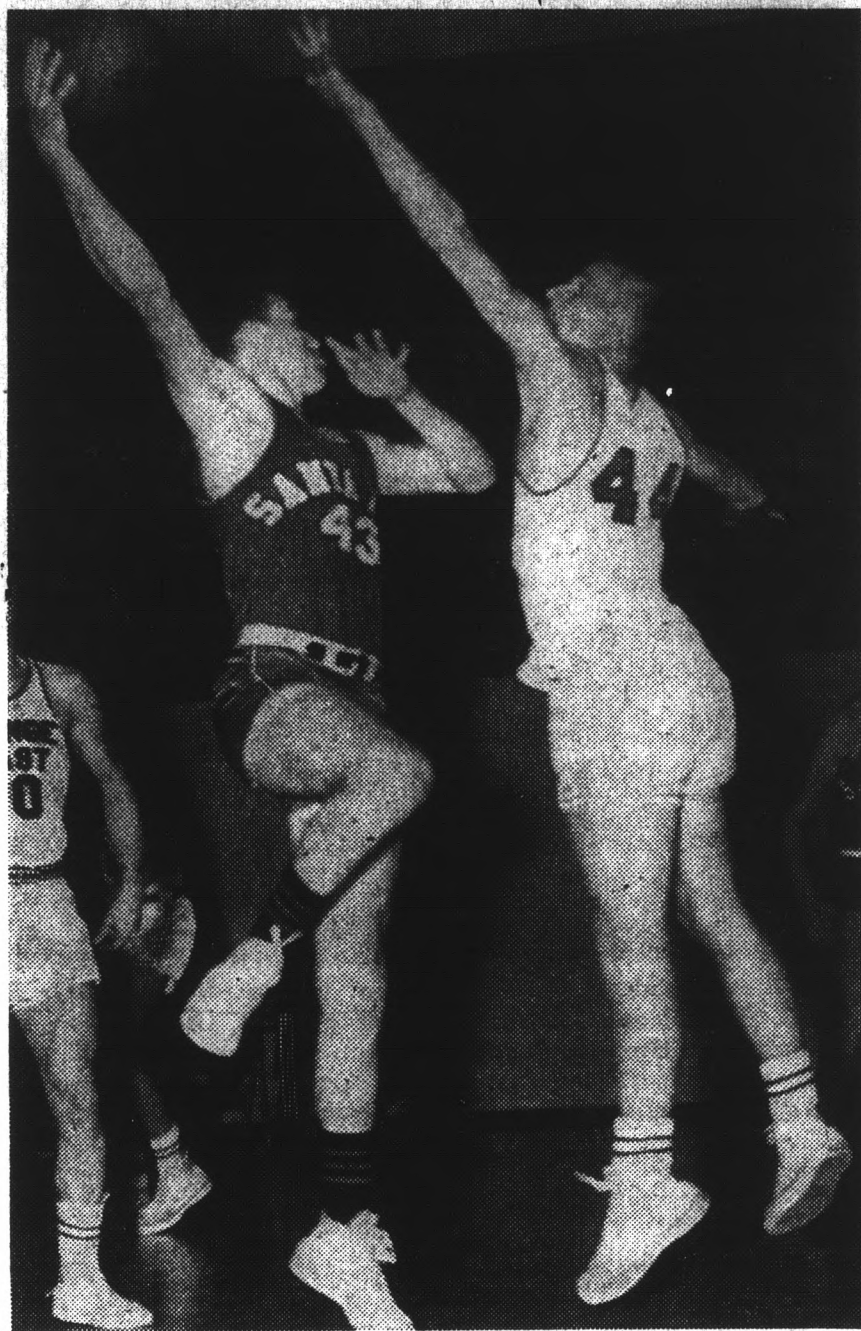

Returnees Told

Those returning from last year include Ken Moats, baseball coach at Huntington Beach High; Bill Ross, Santa Ana High coach; John Wallin, Anaheim High coach; Mike Scobba, Garden Grove High coach; and John McDonough, commissioner of Orange County baseball umpiring.

Don baseball coach Cliff Rothrock, organizer of the clinic, is hopeful of holding the affair outside this year if the weather is suitable. Last year's clinic scene was Bill Cook Gymnasium.

Baseball Day will be featured by a parade around campus and a contest of floats made by the various clubs.

Saturday's clinic will be for Little League, Colt League, and other youth baseball programs, while Friday will be set aside for the older group, including high school, junior college, college, and independent teams.

ON FOUR GAME STREAK

SAC, Riverside Clash Tonight

Riding the crest of a four game winning streak, Santa Ana College's battling Don basketball team makes another bid to overtake front running Fullerton tonight when it hosts Riverside in Bill Cook Gym. Tipoff time is 8 o'clock.

Tuesday night the Dons kept pace with the Hornets, but grabbed a firmer hold on the Eastern Conference's second place when they whipped Chaffey, 76-69.

Pirates Lose

Fullerton stayed one length ahead of Santa Ana by topping Mt. San Antonio, 87-70, while Orange Coast, previously a game behind the Dons, fell back another when the Pirates lost a heart breaker to cellar dwelling Riverside, 68-66.

When the Dons take the floor tonight they will be minus the services of two lettermen. Forward Phil Livesey and center Gary Dutro have been declared scholastically ineligible.

In the first meeting between the two teams, Bob Boyd's chargers handed the Tigers an 80-74 licking at Riverside.

Nine Field Goals

Jon Brettman and Lonnie Moore will start at forwards tonight. Brettman tallied 24 points against Chaffey, including nine field goals in the second half.

Big Garnet Linzey will open up at center and will trade off with his former Sweetwater High teammate Milt Horton. Don Livingston and Don McConnell will get the call at the guard spots.

The SAC, Chaffey tilt was close until midway in the second half when the roof fell in on the Panthers, who did not score a bucket for six minutes. It was 49-49 with 10:24 remaining, and the Dons rattled off 12 straight points before Chaffey could get on the scoreboard.

Brettman's 24 points was high, Linzey had 13, and Livingston hit 11.

Center Kent Campbell garnered high honors for the Panthers with 14. He was followed by Ron Mayquiers with 11.

The Dons led early in the ball game by as much as six points, but Chaffey came back to tie it up 29-29. Reserve Don Dannenbring bagged a jump shot in the final seconds of the first half to give the Dons a 37-35 advantage.

Dons Nab Wins Over OCC, Tribe

Closing out the first round of Eastern Conference play, coach Bob Boyd and his Santa Ana Dons won a pair of two point thrillers last week end to stay hot on the heels of front running Fullerton.

After nipping Orange Coast College, 65-63, in overtime on Friday night at Costa Mesa High, the Dons trimmed San Bernardino, 57-55, Saturday on the strength of Lonnie Moore's tie breaking jump shot with two seconds remaining.

Against Coast the Dons pulled away to a 29-24 halftime lead, but a late Pirate rally led by forward Gary Clark deadlocked the score at 54-54 at the end of regulation time.

Overtime

In the overtime it was Moore and Jon Brettman who gave Santa Ana the big boost that it needed. Moore hit two of his deadly jumpers from 25 feet out and Brettman converted a clutch free throw and connected with a hook shot that put the Dons out of reach.

Clark was the game's high scorer with 16 points, but it was the Dons' big 6-9 center Garnet Linzey who stole the show. Starting his first conference match after playing behind veteran Gary Dutro, Linzey led the SAC scoring with 15 points and was a standout on the boards and on defense.

Brettman had 14, Moore tallied 12, and Don Livingston garnered 11.

Coast scorers were Jerry Enzenauer with 12 and Tim Jones with 11.

Trip Tribe

Against San Bernardino the Dons again lost an early lead and had to fight back to tie the game in the closing minutes. With 52 seconds remaining and the score 55-55, Santa Ana called time out to talk things over.

The Dons stalled until Moore came through with his long jumper from the corner with two seconds left.

Brettman led the Dons point makers with 18, Linzey had 12, and Moore pushed in 10. Pat Flowers of San Bernardino tallied 17.
